Teacher of Film and Media with English: MPS with outer London allowance

We are seeking to appoint a passionate and highly-qualified teacher to join a highly successful and exciting English and Media Studies department. This post would be suitable for an NQT or experienced teacher. The successful candidate should be able to offer Film and Media at KS4 and KS5 as well as English, preferably to KS4. Film and Media Studies have a high take-up at KS4 and KS5 with consistently excellent results. Many students continue their studies to university.

The department was judged 'outstanding' in its last external review led by a practising Ofsted inspector. We are an outward-facing department offering many enrichment opportunities, including cinema trips and industry visits. The department benefits from two dedicated media suites with a green room and a suite of Apple computers

Lampton School is a mixed, multi-ethnic 11-18 school that converted to Academy status in September 2010. Lampton School was judged as "outstanding" in all categories by Ofsted in May 2008 and again in 2013. It was also featured in the Ofsted report 'Twelve outstanding secondary schools - Excelling against the odds'.

We are a SCITT centre and a National Teaching School. In addition, the school is a lead member of Challenge Partnership – a national collaborative network of 240 schools committed to improving the quality of education across our network. As a result, the school is able to offer new and experienced members of the profession excellent opportunities for career development.

Lampton School actively encourages and supports the safeguarding and protection of all its pupils. This post is subject to an enhanced DBS disclosure.
