FROM INTENT TO IMPACT-PLANNING FOR COHERENCE AND DEPTH IN PRIMARY HISTORY

WITH ANDREW WRENN

How can we keep primary history engaging while still meeting OFSTED expectations to teach in greater depth? This practical course will show how schools can structure their curriculum maps so that pupils accumulate more knowledge over time but still capture their interest in the subject. It will demonstrate how to plan through rigorous enquiry questions that revisit important concepts and themes at regular intervals across the key stages.

This session will take place on Tuesday 20th May 2021
From 4:00 - 6:00pm
at Lampton School, Lampton Avenue, Hounslow TW3 4EP
